

Write in the suitable words to complete the following sentences.

1. We haven't got enough money to f to buy a new house.
2. Picasso's paintings are considered to be s of art.
3. Cuckoos are funny birds. They drop their eggs in e of other birds.
4. Whenever I travel by train, I try to find a free seat in a non-smoking d.
5. We knew nothing about your plans. Why didn't you inform us in v that you were going to Rome?
6. Could you tell us what exactly happened? We're not i with the story.
7. King Richard the Third built the s and lived in it till he died.
8. We like doing shopping in the t store because they have everything that we need.
9. Alan's father is a musician. He plays the trumpet in a n.
10. Our daughter has been given an w in recognition of her great involvement in her school activities.
11. The last night storm has done a lot of m to the houses and trees.
12. Mr Jenkins works as a d. He passes sentences in court of justice.
13. You won't get rubber boots here. They are not b in our shop.
14. If you want to h a success in sport, you must practise a lot.
15. There's not a grain of u in what he says. He's a notorious liar.
16. Our car has been out of d for three months now. The engine is broken.
17. The Chief Manager is not working this week. He has been on sick e.
18. Our neighbour, Mr Halley, hasn't got a wife. He's still g.
19. I have been b to move the middle finger ever since I fell off a tree and broke it.
20. Recently, some scientists have made a c of a new planet in a very remote solar system.

SLOWNIC TWO

mt (14.04)

he had taken were not e manner. That is why

ry sorry for this

(REMEMBER)

(PURE)

olent reaction. Nobody

(THINK)

at day.

(SETTLE). To avoid the area because of the school. His behaviour

o be a

(MEASURE)

d always be

(EXCITE). That's why we

their children spoil

de in all civilised

(ABOUND)